

Jaw Ready for This?

Battle of the Barns 2023

Saturday, July 15, 2023

Jessica McTaggart, r, judging

Opening Date for Barns: June 19, 2023

Opening Date for Individuals: June 26, 2023 (if space allows)

Closing Date: July 10, 2023 (unless show is filled earlier)

For the Battle, there will be two (2) Barn categories: small- 7 or less riders and big- 8 or more riders. A minimum of three (3) riders is required to participate.

Each rider must ride 2 different tests at the same level.

For those who show independently, make your own Barn. Same rules apply!

Riders must ride at the level at which they are currently showing (yes, I will check) or higher. If you have been riding Intro B and C, no dropping back to A and B!! If you are an eventer, ride your eventing tests, but you have to ride A and B at the same level. If you have been riding Starter, time to move up to Beginner Novice A and B!

Only one (1) open rider per barn.

There will be two Barn winners, as set forth above. The Battle of the Barns winners will be determined by taking the highest score of each individual rider, totaling those scores and then averaging them. The two Barns with the highest averaged scores will be the winners.

Ribbons and prizes will be given out as done at the regular shows. A high score prize, no ribbon, will be given to the highest score of the day. There will be NO TIP awards.

No jackets! Team matchy matchy is welcome, but is not required. Boots and an ATSM helmet are required. Western dressage riders over 18 years of age are permitted to wear a hat.

*The show opens on June 19, 2023. No entries will be taken prior to that. Don't ask!! All entries must be complete, i.e., filled out, waiver signed, coggins information and payment. For individuals not participating in the Battle but who want to show, the show will open on June 26, 2023, if there is space available. Show closes at 6:00pm on July 10, 2023, which means all completed entries in hand at that time. A barn roster must be provided no later than the closing date.

This show does not count towards SSBC year end awards.

We're gonna need a bigger boat!